

STORYBOOK THEATRE

Ages 3½–5

Learning is fun for children in each of these action-packed sessions which explore a theme through creative drama, music, movement and the visual arts. Monsters, mermaids, rainbows and robots spark imagination and engage children with wonderful stories. As students respond to literature through the performing arts, confidence, creativity and communication skills are nurtured.

ADVENTURE THEATRE

Grades 1–3

Costumes, props and music combine with drama and dance as children bring favorite stories to life. Each exciting theme-centered adventure includes a class in creative drama, singing, movement, and the visual arts. Fluency of ideas, confidence, creativity, and communication skills develop as boys and girls respond to literature and discover their own creative voices.

SUMMERSTAGE THEATRE

Grades 3–4, 5–6, 7–9

These two-week, full-day programs will include daily classes in acting, dance, and singing followed by rehearsal of a musical theatre revue to be presented at the conclusion of each session and again, at Musikfest on August 1st. Theatre games, improvisation, voice and speech will introduce the fundamentals of acting. Dance instruction will develop musicality and beginning jazz technique. Singing class will include vocal warm-ups, breath control, projection and acting through singing. These popular workshops offer boys and girls an enriching opportunity for learning, friendship and fun through the performing arts. Students are divided into 3 groups: grades 3+4, grades 5+6, grades 7-9. Bring a bag lunch.
